WEST VIRGINIA BAPTIST FOUNDATION

Report to the Convention 2019

The Foundation has twenty-one separate funds established by individuals, churches, associations, or by the convention. Each fund is invested according to the wishes of the entity which established the fund. The fund's holdings are distributed according to the wishes of the organization which established the fund.

The officers of the Foundation for 2018-2019 are Kyle Neal (President, Immanuel Baptist Church, Mountain State Baptist Association), Matt Smith (Vice-President, Living Hope Baptist Church, Petersburg, Potomac Highland Baptist Association), and Nella Toppings (Secretary, Cross Lanes Baptist Church, Pioneer Baptist Association).

The Snedden-Slaughter Scholarship was awarded to Kyle Neal, attending Southeastern Seminary. A reminder to those applying, all applications for the scholarship must be postmarked by June 1 of each year in order to be considered for the scholarship.

The incorporation papers were filed with the Secretary of State's office. The accounting firm of Herman and Cormany audited the financial transactions and accounting practices of the Foundation and pronounced them to be sound.

We are emphasizing the John I. Snedden-Ray Slaughter Scholarship Fund through 2020. The Snedden Scholarship Fund was started by the Convention in 1979 to honor John Snedden, an important leader in the formation of the West Virginia Convention of Southern Baptists. Snedden served as Association Missionary in the Upper Ohio Valley Association and also as the Executive Director of the West Virginia convention in the years it was forming. At the 2010 state convention, the messengers approved combining the Ray Slaughter Scholarship Fund with the Snedden Fund. This was done with the prior approval and recommendation of the Immanuel Baptist Association, which had started the Slaughter Fund for the same purpose many years ago, to honor the devoted ministry by Ray Slaughter on behalf of the churches. Ray Slaughter was a tireless worker for and minister to the churches.

The interest from the fund goes to selected students who are in college or seminary and preparing for a church vocation. The fund has approximately $17,700 in it now.

We encourage individuals, churches, Sunday School classes, and other groups to give to the fund.

Kyle Neal
President

WVCSB 2019 REPORTS

CLEDITH CAMPBELL, INTERIM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

I'm grateful for the opportunity to serve this great convention as the Interim Executive Director. These past months have been both challenging and exciting.

We began a Monday morning prayer time where the entire staff meets for a time of devotion and prayer before we kick off our work week. We pray for each other, our churches and their pastors, and for our search committee, specifically that God will bring the right person to us to lead our convention forward.

In order to make our building more secure we have changed the pass codes to the entry door and reassigned new codes to each person. This will allow us to know when a person is in the building as well as knowing who has a pass code to the building.

I've been in conversations with leadership at the North American Mission Board (NAMB) concerning funding for our convention. Funding for 2020 will remain the same for the first three quarters, but will change to a new funding plan the fourth quarter of 2020. This new funding plan could cut the funds we are receiving from NAMB by as much as $172,220. Dallas Smith, WVCSB finance chairman, is aware of these cuts and his committee has worked hard to make the necessary changes in our proposed 2020 budget. The full impact of these new cuts will be felt in 2021, but because of the hard work and foresight of our finance committee, we are well prepared to handle these challenges.

Related to this new budget news, I had a conference call with all of our associational directors of missions and explained to them that we need their help in obtaining three important pieces of information from 2017-2018. We need the churches that have not reported their ACP's to provide the total number of baptisms for those two years as well as their total membership numbers and their average Sunday Morning worship attendance. These figures are important in adjusting our future funding from NAMB.

Finally, our Credentials Committee will be recommending to our convention that New Vision Baptist Church of Berkeley Springs, West Virginia be admitted to our state convention.

In closing I am happy to report to you that during the first six months of this year our WVCSB churches gave $697,355.27 to mission work outside of West Virginia broken down as follows:

- $281,921.97 through the Cooperative Program
- $248,759.81 to Lottie Moon
- $6,475.08 to IMB World Hunger
- $158,579.64 to Annie Armstrong
- $1,618.77 to NAMB World Hunger

To this I would simply say, "To God be the glory, great things he hath done."

TIM TURNER, EVANGELISM + DISCIPLESHIP

2019 has been a fantastic year. October 1 marked my three year anniversary of coming to the great state of West Virginia to serve the WVCSB. It has been a year of constant travel, but I am grateful for the invitations by WVCSB churches and associations who grant me a place in their pulpits. It is always a joy to meet new people, preach and teach the Word, and share Jesus' name. In reality, I am living my younger man's dream. By the way, I am also going to be a grandfather! YES!

I can say joyfully these past three years have been an incredible learning experience and that pastors have probably encouraged me more than I have them. Not a lot is said about our pioneer state, but I have personally seen and heard the stories of changed lives in so many communities. I have worshipped at Sunday gatherings, Wednesday night prayer meetings, and Saturday night events at which God has poured out his blessing! I have shared with churches in Sunday school and discipleship training events, retreats, evangelism conferences, and have seen the results of dozens of churches that understand the importance of VBS. There is no denying the movement of God here in West Virginia.

I am also encouraged by what is transpiring on college campuses. I have attended student worship services and met with campus ministers to listen how God has led and moved in mighty ways. That's never a waste of time to hear those reports! The WVCSB will also be adding an additional campus minister at WVU Tech in 2020.

This past year, one of our main goals was to continue to introduce the 3 Circles initiative offered by the North American Mission Board (NAMB). I have spoken with churches that have taught it in discipleship settings. Many of those congregations have seen fruit from those gospel conversations. To support that effort, the Who's Your One initiative introduced at the Southern Baptist Convention has propelled the evangelism thrust even more. God is working.

As during every year, I was also highly involved in planning or implementation of the following in 2019:

- January 10-12, VBS Institute at Ridgecrest (state leadership team)
- February 15-16, State VBS Training (17 churches)
- March 1-2, Youth Evangelism Conference (585 attendees, 20 decisions)
- April 6, Sexual Abuse Awareness Training
- September 13-14, Men and Boys Retreat
- October 3, INSPIRE Evangelism Conference

This coming year I will continue to offer my help with churches in any way that I can by preaching, teaching, or training in any needed areas in our churches.

DANNY RUMPLE, CHURCH PLANTING + MISSIONS

As 2019 closes and as 2020 approaches, I am reminded that the WVCSB will soon celebrate its fiftieth anniversary as a convention of churches. It is an awesome thing to be able to celebrate 50 years of cooperative partnership between churches for the glory of God and obedience to the Great Commission. Many things keep us busy in ministry, but none should be more important than cooperative mission between churches. It's the cornerstone of Southern Baptist life.

During this past year, we continued to see strategic church planting move forward in our state with these two core values:

1. Churches plant churches.
2. New churches are started through evangelism and discipleship, men and women engaged, communities on mission to see God's kingdom come.

New works in places such as Charleston and Hagerstown have not only been birthed, but they were birthed through strong local church sending and support. God is raising up the next wave of missionary pastors to go and make disciples in and through West Virginia.

Through our great partnership with the North American Mission Board (NAMB), and because of their generous support, we were able to host Vance Pitman this spring for our Sent Workshop. Pastors and leaders from around our state learned how to have a kingdom focus in ministry (both here and abroad), how to engage in strategic recovery ministries, as well as how to build a leadership pipeline in the local church.

We are seeing God do amazing things in West Virginia, and yet, we face many challenges. As encouraging as it is to see a number of churches engaged in missions and church planting around our state, that number is still a small minority. We will work tirelessly to see more churches involved in this mission in 2020. Continued Leadership Pipeline training will be made available to help our pastors learn how to better discover, develop, and deploy leaders in their churches that God might be calling to go out and be on mission through church planting.

West Virginia Southern Baptists have a great opportunity to do ministry in a state that desperately needs the good news of Jesus Christ. Drug addiction, unemployment, broken homes, and poverty are the problems we see daily and, as Christians, we must work to help alleviate these. However, there is also an unseen spiritual world that we must resolutely decide to engage. This is our calling as followers of Jesus. "Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God" (2 Corinthians 5:20-21).

CLEVE PERSINGER, COMMUNICATION + PARTNERSHIPS

God is doing great things in West Virginia! However, we cannot be satisfied with where we are when there are so many lost people living among us. During this period between Dr. Bill Henard transitioning back to the pastorate and hiring a new executive director-treasurer, the WVCSB directors are committed to staying heads down and working diligently to set up the new state executive and our convention for success in the unique opportunities that God is calling us to.

STRENGTHEN CHURCHES WITH EXCELLENCE

A large part of my role and ministry area serves all of the ministries of the WVCSB by seeking to create excellent, effective, creative, and professional communication strategies and experiences that strengthen and send churches to make Jesus known in and through West Virginia. A variety of communications vehicles accomplish this goal throughout the year such as print, online, digital, video, social media, and events.

We've worked hard to implement a culture of excellence while producing WVCSB events. This was evident in 2019 with a nationally known speaker lineup that welcomed Jason Gaston (YEC), Vance Pitman (Sent Workshop), Mark Dance (Shepherding the Shepherd), Mark Clifton (INSPIRE), and Johnny Hunt (annual meeting). More quality events and speakers are slated for 2020, our convention's fiftieth anniversary, including SBC entity heads Kevin Ezell and Paul Chitwood. Because of faithful Cooperative Program giving by WVCSB churches, we are able to keep these gatherings and resources at no to low cost.

Throughout 2019, we continued development work on a redesign of the convention's website, wvcsb.org. The launch of the site is anticipated for spring 2020.

ACCELERATE GOSPEL IMPACT

We recognize for the many WVCSB churches that are successfully making a gospel impact in their communities, between other states, and globally, there are however, churches who are just struggling to keep their doors open, let alone actively seeking mission partners for gospel impact. We want to help you look for how God is at work, and celebrate as a church how you can join in the mission of God to advance the gospel no matter your size or weekly attendance.

A while back we began the process of identifying existing partnerships in our churches, but wish to do so much more as a convention in 2020 to highlight and pour fuel on the fire in order to see a movement of God flow out of West Virginia as churches take their next steps to collectively make Jesus known.

Our state office exists to serve you - in fact, 18,000 miles were compiled this year on my vehicle alone! Please let us know how we can walk alongside and help your church multiply through one-on-one consulting, training, ministry connections, and more.
