

Fellowship Baptist Church

Prospective Pastor Requirements

Fellowship Baptist Church in Princeton, WV is seeking a Full-time Pastor who meets the biblical requirements for the position based on 1 Timothy 3:1-7, and Titus 1:6-9. The Pastor will affirm The Baptist Faith and Message and have a deep understanding and commitment to Southern Baptist doctrine and theology.

Support of the Cooperative Program and related missions is a must, and the Pastor should maintain a relationship with the local Mountain State Baptist Association.

In addition to preparing normal weekly sermons, and Wednesday evening studies, the Pastor will need to perform special services, as needed. (e.g. weddings, funerals, etc.) The Pastor will also be involved with visitations and other special events in church life (e.g. VBS.)

Along with the requirements in 1 Timothy and Titus, Fellowship Baptist Church is seeking a Servant-Leader Pastor who:

- Feels led by God to submit a resume to Fellowship Baptist Church.
- Will seek God's direction for the vision of Fellowship Baptist Church.
- Has the ability to effectively deliver God's Word.
- Has a heart for missions in the local community, the state, and the world.
- Has the ability to minister to, relate to, and disciple multiple age groups.
- Has the desire to love the church and the people even before knowing them.
- Has the desire to see the lost saved and growth within the church.
- Has attained some level of higher education (e.g. College, Technical College, Military Experience.)
- Has attained at least one year of experience in a formal church ministry role (e.g. Pastor, Assoc. Pastor, Minister, Staff.)

Interested candidates may submit a resume, along with a minimum of 6 references to:
