NOTES:

CABIN CHAT

Highs and lows today?

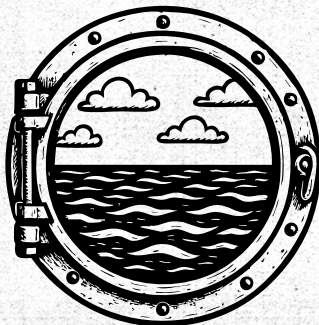

What did you learn today?

What are you chasing right now that might be stealing your attention from Jesus?

Would you still follow Jesus even if no one else noticed?

How does the gospel free us from needing to be impressive?

What prayer requests do you have for yourself and others tonight?

TUESDAY

TIME ALONE WITH GOD

Find a quiet spot, read God's Word, and think about these questions.

READ: 1 PETER 5:5B-6

God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble. So humble yourselves under the mighty power of God, and at the right time he will lift you up in honor.

QUESTIONS:

- 1. Where in your life do you tend to put yourself first?
- 2. How does pride usually show up in your thoughts, your words, or how you treat others?

3. What does this verse say about what God does with our pride—and how he responds to humility?

4. Who in your life can you serve or encourage today instead of trying to impress?

PRAY - Talk to God:

"Jesus, pride comes so naturally. I want to be seen, praised, and in control—but you gave all that up for me. You humbled yourself, even to the point of death, so I could be forgiven and free. Help me believe that greatness in your kingdom looks like serving others, not trying to be first. Teach me to walk in your grace and reflect your heart today."

CABIN CHAT

Highs and lows today?

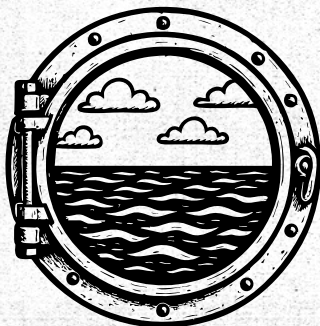

What did you learn today?

Where are you choosing what's easy over what's right?

What comfort are you afraid to give up—even if Jesus asked you to?

How did Jesus trade his comfort for our salvation?

What prayer requests do you have for yourself and others tonight?

WEDNESDAY

TIME ALONE WITH GOD

Find a quiet spot, read God's Word, and think about these questions.

READ: GALATIANS 6:5

Pay careful attention to your own work, for then you will get the satisfaction of a job well done, and you won't need to compare yourself to anyone else.

QUESTIONS:

- 1. What's one way you've compared yourself to someone else recently—on social media, in sports, looks, or faith?
- 2. How did it affect your attitude, your confidence, or the way you saw that person?

3. What does this verse say about how God wants you to view your life and your calling?

4. How would your day change if you really believed Jesus is enough for you—without needing to “measure up” to anyone else?

PRAY - Talk to God:

“Jesus, I admit I care way too much about how I compare to other people. But the gospel reminds me I don’t have to prove anything—you already proved everything on the cross. You died for me, you love me, and in you I have nothing left to earn and nothing to hide. Help me rest in that today. Set me free to cheer others on, because I’m already fully accepted in you.”

CABIN CHAT

Highs and lows today?

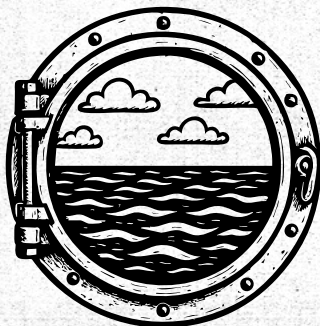

What did you learn today?

Did anyone decide to follow Jesus for the first time tonight?

What would change if you really believed Jesus is better than you running your own life?

How can you reflect Jesus more and yourself less this week?

What prayer requests do you have for yourself and others tonight?

THURSDAY

TIME ALONE WITH GOD

Find a quiet spot, read God's Word, and think about these questions.

READ: JAMES 3:5

In the same way, the tongue is a small thing that makes grand speeches. But a tiny spark can set a great forest on fire.

QUESTIONS:

- 1. Why do you think gossip is so easy to listen to—and so hard to stop?
- 2. How does gossip reflect what's really going on in your heart?

3. What do your words this week say about who or what is sitting on the throne of your heart?

4. If Jesus is your true source of worth, how can that free you to speak life, not tear others down?

PRAY - Talk to God:

"Jesus, I've used my words to feel important, to fit in, and to make myself look better than others. But you didn't speak against me—you spoke for me. You stood silent when accused so I could be forgiven, and now you speak my name before the Father. Remind me that I'm fully loved and accepted in you, so I don't have to tear others down to lift myself up. Use my words today to point people to you—the one who speaks grace and truth."

CABIN CHAT

Highs and lows today?

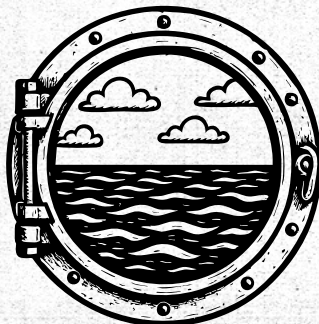

What did you learn today?

Does anyone sense a call to ministry or missions?

How would your life look different if your identity was fully rooted in Jesus?

Why is it good news that who you are is based on what Jesus has done, not what you do?

What prayer requests do you have for yourself and others tonight?

FRIDAY

TIME ALONE WITH GOD

Find a quiet spot, read God's Word, and think about these questions.

READ: 2 CORINTHIANS 5:17

Anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun!

QUESTIONS:

The idols we've talked about this week are all identity thieves. But in Christ, we don't have to guess who we are anymore.

Jesus + nothing = everything. He is enough.

1. Which "idol" from this week do you most tend to chase?

2. How has chasing it affected your view of yourself—and your view of Jesus?

3. According to today's verse, what's true about you right now if you belong to Christ?

4. If Jesus + nothing = everything, what does that change about the way you live today?

PRAY - Talk to God:

"Jesus, this week I've seen how easily I chase after things that promise identity but always leave me empty. But you gave your life to make me new. You died in my place, rose from the grave, and now call me your own. I'm not who the world says I am. I'm not who my past says I am. I am who you say I am—fully known, fully loved, and fully yours. Help me live like I believe Jesus + nothing = everything. I don't need a platform, approval, comfort, or image to chase anymore. I have you—and you're enough."
